

Richard L. Kohan
President, AFO, LLC
Chair of National YoungArts Foundation

Richard L. Kohan is currently President of AFO, LLC.

Prior to AFO, LLC, Rich was a Tax Partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) based in New York. At PwC, Richard served as the National Leader of PwC's Personal Financial Services (PFS) Practice. The PFS practice focused on providing comprehensive consulting and compliance services to high net worth business owners and families, as well as family offices. Services included planning and compliance for individuals, trusts, estates, charitable and small business entities. It also included consulting on investment strategies, special asset purchases and management, risk management, family office structures, strategy and management consulting.

Rich received his BA in Political Science from Syracuse University, his JD from Western New England University School of Law, and his LLM in Tax from Boston University School of Law.

Rich serves on the board of directors of New World Symphony and Big Brothers and Big Sisters Foundation of Miami, respectively; and chairs the National YoungArts Foundation.